Attorney To Address Te Deum On Soviet Economic Threat

John L. Mitchell will be the speaker at the monthly Te Deum meeting at Brescia College Wednesday. He will speak at 7:30 p.m. on "The Soviet Economic Threat to the Free World and What Should We Do About It?"

Mitchell, an attorney, entered government service in 1938. He served in several capacities until 1942 at which time he went into the Navy. Upon being discharged from the Navy in 1946 he entered in private business in New York City. In 1949 he returned to government service and was employed by the Central Intelligence Agency.

From October 1951 to January 1953 Mitchell served as chief counsel to the congressional committee investigating the Katyn Forest Massacre, or better known as the Polish atrocity.

Mitchell is chairman of the public information committee of the administrative law section, American Bar Association and vice chairman for Congressional Information, administrative law committee, Federal Bar Association.
